Policy on Calculator Usage During Examinations:

Only calculators explicitly listed and identified as non-programmable and non-graphing are permitted in examination halls. Candidates must ensure that they carry only the approved models. Use of any unauthorized model shall be treated as malpractice and may result in disciplinary action under the university's examination regulations.

Invigilators have the authority to verify the calculator model during the exam. Students may be asked to submit their calculator for inspection if needed.

Students are advised to verify the model number printed on the front of the calculator body before the examination.
