Students and parents are expected to comply fully with the above. Violation of any rule in this Code of Conduct will lead to disciplinary action, including punishment as per University policy, up to and including expulsion from the hostel or University.

PROCTORIAL COMMITTEE

The role of the Proctorial Committee is to help the Vice Chancellor of the University in taking appropriate steps and timely actions for maintaining student discipline on the campus. It also involves taking disciplinary action against students breaking the "Ethics and Moral Code of Conduct" laid down by the University.

The Proctorial Committee of the University is headed by the Chief Proctor as Chairperson. The committee consists of nominated faculty members from all the schools, who are assisted by an Administrative Officer and an Executive Assistant.

Upon receipt of any complaint of misconduct from any Student/School Disciplinary Committee/Faculty Member/Head of Department/Dean/IHA/Security Department against any student(s), a detailed scrutiny of the complaint is undertaken. In case a prima facie offence is found to have been committed, a show cause notice is issued to the student(s), with a copy to the parents. Upon receipt of the reply, the offence is classified as minor or major. Minor cases are dealt with directly as per the University policies, while major cases are investigated by a Proctorial Committee. During the investigation, emphasis is given to the principles of natural justice, wherein a fair opportunity for hearing, examination of evidence, and cross-questioning is provided to the accused to explain their conduct.

Once the inquiry is completed to the satisfaction of the committee members, the recommendations of the Proctorial Committee are approved by the Hon. Vice Chancellor, based on which orders are issued by the Registrar.
